Our Services

We focus on supporting people into employment, training and volunteering.

We are passionate about supporting people with learning difficulties and autism into jobs with a future. We do this by offering a range of services that support people at whatever stage they are - whether that is just leaving school or college, unemployed, returning to work or graduates. We also offer a family service for new or expectant parents with a learning difficulty or autism and social groups.

Our social enterprises

Loaf Catering is our catering business which delivers outside catering to businesses, functions etc.

We run six cafes four are in Belfast - The Bobbin in City Hall, Loaf on Grosvenor Road and the cafes at Ulster Museum and the Folk at Transport Museum at Cultra. We also have a cafe at the Ulster American Folk Park in Omagh

Loaf Pottery

our sixth site is our pottery, pizzeria and coffee shop in Crawfordsburn where we offer wood fired pizzas and our range of beautiful handthrown pottery

JAM Card®

an app lets people with a learning difficulty, autism or communication barrier tell others they need Just A Minute in social / business settings

Gauge Impact®

is our research and evaluation business that specialises in helping companies and organisations measure their social impact

For every £1 invested in NOW Group 2019/20 we generated

We're an award winning social enterprise based in Belfast supporting people with learning difficulties and autism into jobs with a future

Our Culture

Our Mission

To support people with learning difficulties and autism into jobs with a future

Our Vision

To support people with learning difficulties and autism into jobs with a future

Courage

We have the strength, willingness and determination to initiate, make things happen and to carry them through.

Accountability

We take personal responsibility for achieving our objectives and act with openness, integrity and trust.

Our Values

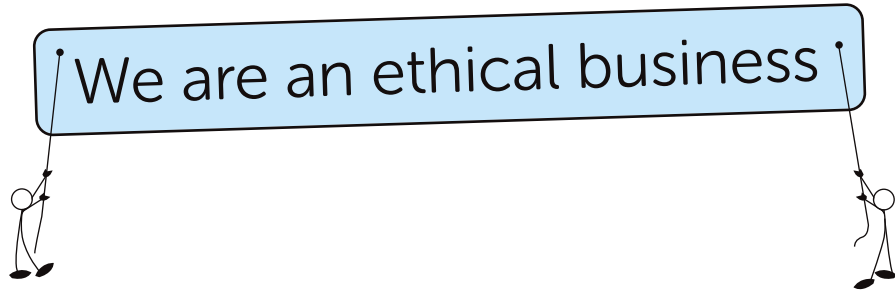

Collaboration

We are one company.
We are all NOW Group people and treat each other with respect regardless of status.

Impact

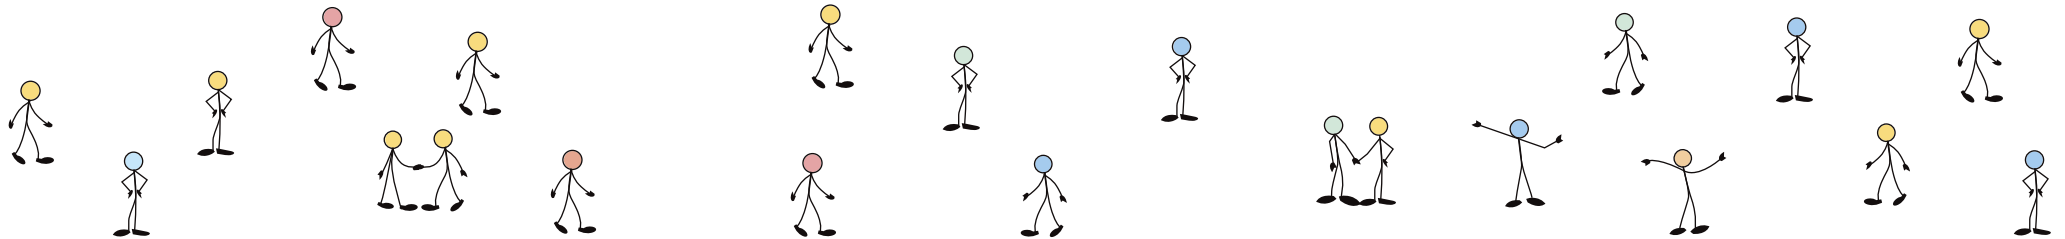

Our services change lives.
We are relentless in our pursuit of success and excellence.

We are a business committed to doing the right thing for our staff, the environment and society.

We run a catering business that uses and sells no single use plastic and all our packaging is compostable.

We do not use single use plastic in our head office and all our staff have been supplied with either a reusable water bottle or coffee cup.

We run wellbeing initiatives which include a health cash plan, stakeholder pension scheme (5% employer contribution), Bike to Work scheme, flexible/agile working.

We offer opportunities for our staff to volunteer at the social and other events that we run for our participants.

We only want the best, most motivated people in NOW Group. Everything we do is focused on supporting people with learning difficulties and autism into jobs with a future. It's in our DNA.

We are socially focused and expect our staff to be entrepreneurial. We are constantly changing, evolving and innovating so expect change.
